Dormitory

Expenses Reference in Taiwan

The most important thing while living and studying in Taiwan it is like the cost of meals which for 1 day can cost around IDR 50,000 for 2 meals a day

If students are allowed to cook in the dormitory, they can save more on food expenses by cooking for a period of one week

Pay for other needs while living and studying in Taiwan

The total cost of living in Taiwan is paid with the salary obtained from part-time jobs, therefore students should study while working to make ends meet

Regarding living expenses such as food, housing and others, students can see more fully through the website: www.int-steps.com
